Readers First (click the link) offers you the chance to win free books; you simply write a very short review of the opening pages and you’re entered into the competition. I think they give you the book anyway – I’ve won every time. It’s a means of gaining reviews for books before they are actually published. I’ve read some good books thanks to Readers First. (ML)

With Goodreads (click the link), you’re able to add books that you’ve read to your own reader profile. You’ll then get suggestions for your next read. Feel free to review and rate your books too.
